French Culture Wars

Kritzman examines how contemporary policies for the arts and education in France have raised important issues concerning the definition of culture and its political consequences. French public intellectuals including Agasinski, Bourdieu, Debray, Finkelkraut, Fumaroli, Pennac, and Wievorka will be discussed in the context of the public policies of the Malraux and Lang ministries of culture in Fifth Republic France.

This lecture is held in conjunction with the conference French Cultural Studies from October 11 – 14, 2001. For more information, please contact the Department of French at 333-2020 or www.french.uiuc.edu.
