

MILLERCOMM93

The Tuskegee Syphilis Study: Its History and Legacy

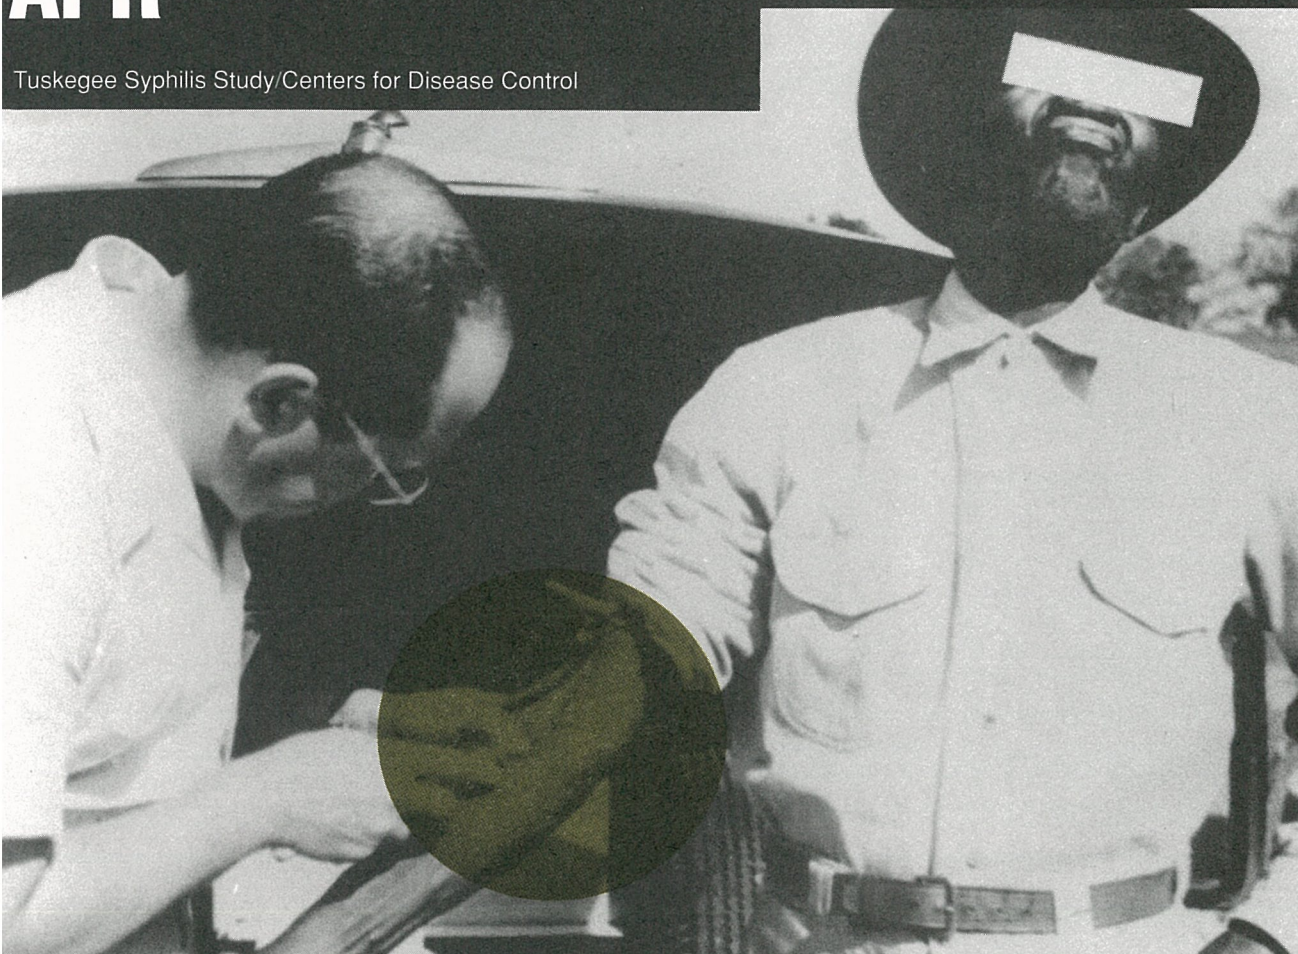

Vanessa Northington Gamble Assistant Professor of Medical History, Preventive Medicine, and Family Practice
School of Medicine, University of Wisconsin-Madison

22
APR

Thursday 8:00pm 1993

112 Gregory Hall
810 South Wright Street, Urbana
University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

Tuskegee Syphilis Study/Centers for Disease Control

Miss Evers' Boys, a play based on the Tuskegee Syphilis Study, will be presented Friday, April 23 at 8:00 pm in 112 Gregory Hall.
For further information and complimentary tickets, please call the Clinical Education Center at 337-2373.

Office of the Vice-Chancellor for Research and the Graduate College
College of Medicine at Urbana-Champaign
College of Nursing
Department of Community Health
Department of History
Department of Pathology
Department of Theatre
Afro-American Studies and Research Program
Beckman Institute for Advanced Science and Technology
Institute of Government and Public Affairs
Medical Scholars Program
Program for the Study of Cultural Values and Ethics
Urban Health Program, College of Medicine at Chicago
Women's Studies Program

African-American Cultural Program
American Medical Women's Association
Student National Medical Association
Christie Clinic Association
Covenant Medical Center, Clinical Education Center
Association of American Medical Colleges
The Center for Advanced Study
George A. Miller Endowment
George A. Miller Committee