

MILLERCOMM95

Robert A. Sedler has spent a lifetime studying and promoting civil rights. In this discussion he will examine the legal, medical, and social issues relating to the hastening of death by the terminally ill and the broader questions concerning the extent to which the State may limit the freedom of individuals to give and receive assistance.

Thursday 4:00 pm 1995

Foellinger Auditorium
South End of Quadrangle
University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

Robert A. Sedler

College of Law, Wayne State University

Assisted Suicide: The Choice to Hasten Death

Office of the Chancellor
Office of the Provost and Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs
Office of the Vice Chancellor for Research and the Graduate College
Office of the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs
The Council of Deans
The Center for Advanced Study
George A. Miller Endowment
George A. Miller Committee

College of Law
School of Art and Design
School of Human Resources and Family Studies
Department of Educational Organization and Leadership
Department of Journalism
Department of Philosophy
Department of Political Science
Department of Sociology
Department of Urban and Regional Planning
African American Cultural Program
Afro-American Studies and Research Program
Counseling Center
Krannert Art Museum and Kinkead Pavilion
MBA Program
Medical Scholars Program
Medical Humanities and Social Sciences Program
Office of Minority Student Affairs
Unit One
Unit for Criticism and Interpretive Theory
WILL-AM Radio
World Heritage Museum