

MILLERCOMM95

In a new cosmology based on science, the human is no longer separate; observer and observed merge and become part of the web of one life process. In this view, the uniqueness of the human lies not in separation, but in being the carrier of mystery.

Daniel Martin, principal author of an Earth Charter presented at the U.N. Conference on Environment and Development, Rio de Janeiro, Brazil

5
APR

Wednesday 8:00pm 1995

Lincoln Hall Theatre
702 South Wright Street, Urbana
University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

Daniel Martin

Founder and Director, International Coordinating Committee on Religion and Earth (ICCRE)
Cross River, New York

Ecological Education and The Restoration of the Human Spirit

Office of the Chancellor
Office of the Provost and Vice Chancellor for Academic Affairs
Office of the Vice Chancellor for Research and the Graduate College
Office of the Vice Chancellor for Student Affairs
The Council of Deans
The Center for Advanced Study
George A. Miller Endowment
George A. Miller Committee

Department of Community Health
Department of Ecology, Ethology, and Evolution
Department of Forestry
Department of Geography
Department of Horticulture
Department of Philosophy
Cooperative Extension Service
Illinois Natural History Survey
Institute for Environmental Education
Program for the Study of Cultural Values and Ethics
Program for the Study of Religion
Environmental Law Society
Students for Environmental Concerns
Central States Education Center
Champaign County Audubon Society
Champaign Urbana Student Environmental Coalition
Community Recycling Center
Community United Church of Christ
Educational Resources in Environmental Studies
First Presbyterian Church of Urbana
Grand Prairie Friends
Holy Cross Catholic Church, Peace and Justice Committee
McKinley Presbyterian Foundation
Pax Christie
Prairie Group of the Sierra Club
St. Patrick's Catholic Church, Social Action Committee
Unitarian Universalist Church
Urbana Park District, Anita Purvis Nature Center