

MILLERCOMM88

Lives Through Time: A Long Look at Drug Use, Depression, and Divorce

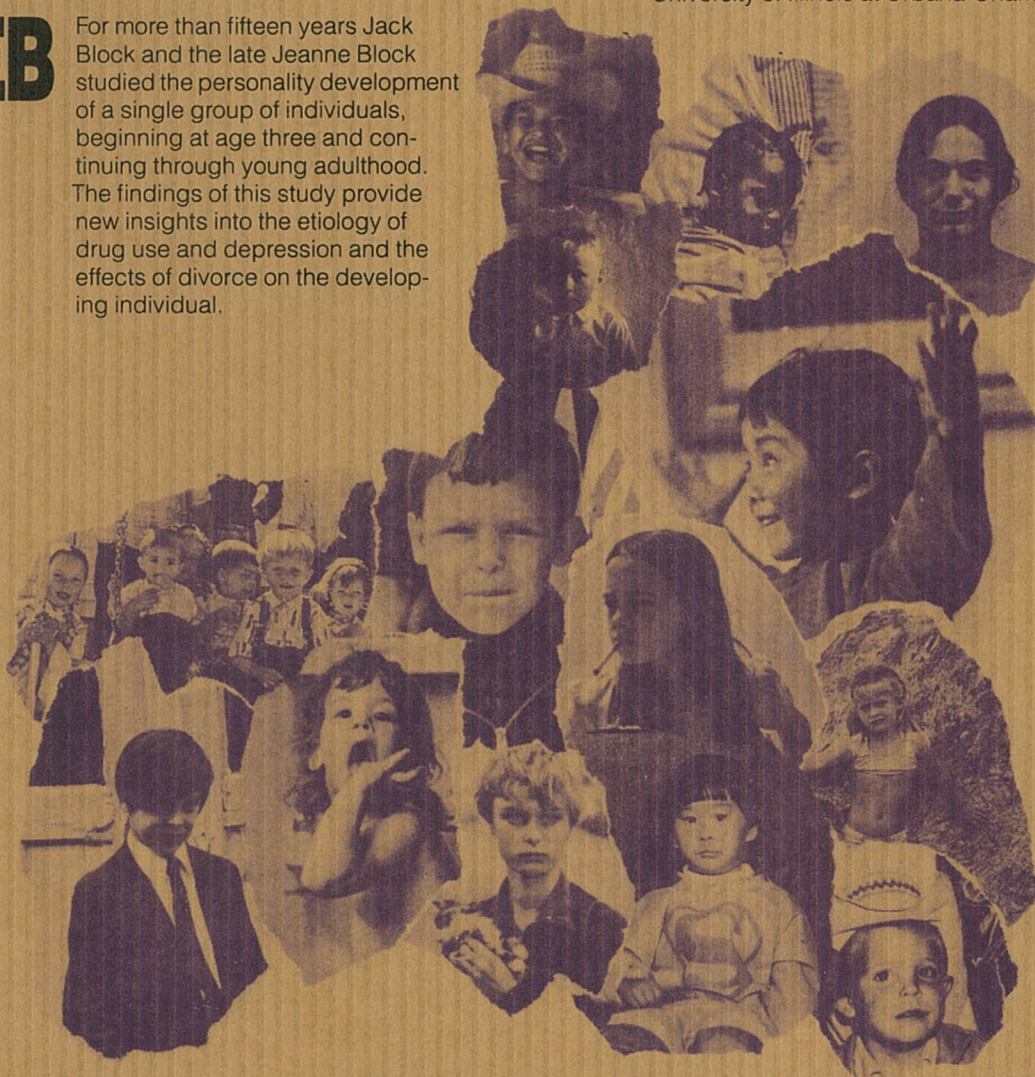

Jack Block

Professor of Psychology
University of California at Berkeley

Wednesday 8:00 pm 1988

Third Floor, Levis Faculty Center
919 West Illinois Street, Urbana
University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

For more than fifteen years Jack Block and the late Jeanne Block studied the personality development of a single group of individuals, beginning at age three and continuing through young adulthood. The findings of this study provide new insights into the etiology of drug use and depression and the effects of divorce on the developing individual.

School of Human Resources and Family Studies
Department of Leisure Studies
Department of Psychology
Institute for Communications Research
Women's Studies Program
George A. Miller Committee

24
FEB