

MILLERCOMM88

Landscape and Symbol In the Art of Ancient Mexico

Richard Townsend

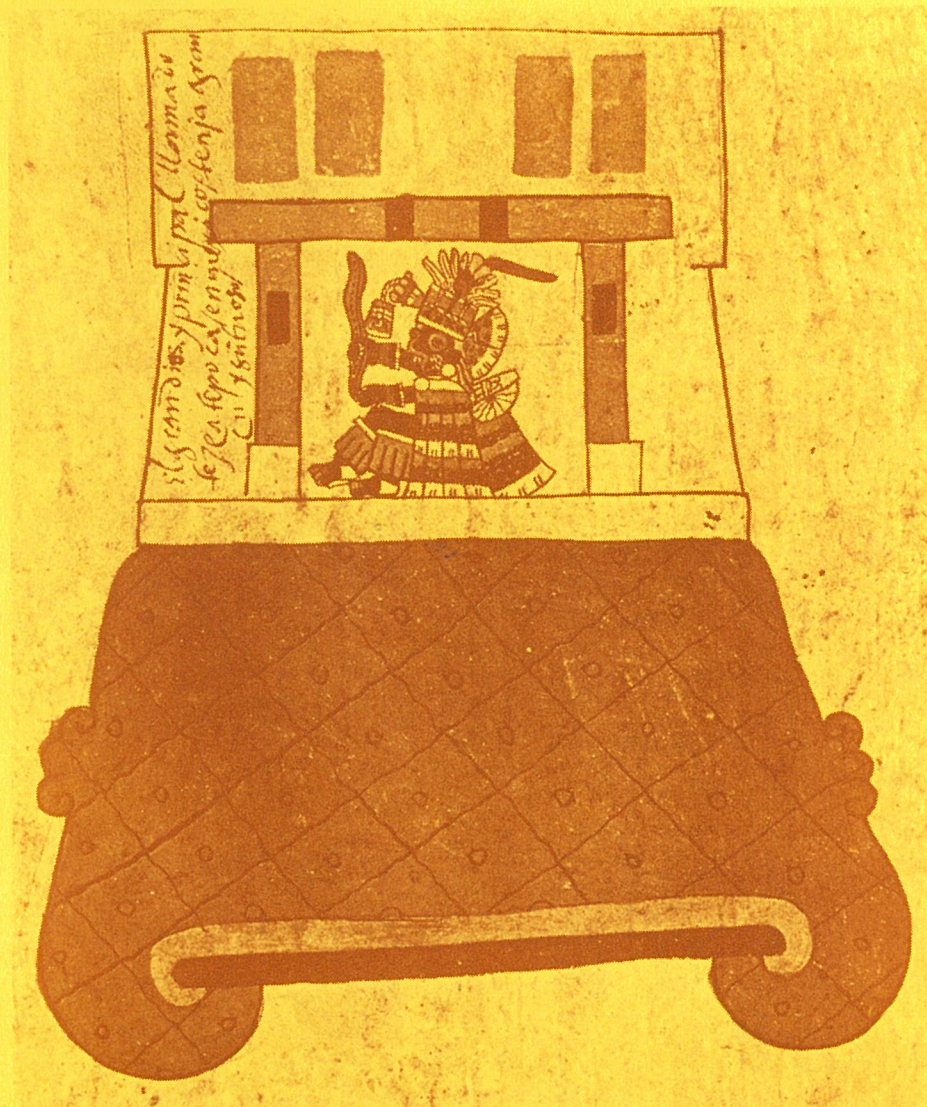

*Curator of the Department of Africa, Oceania, and the Americas
Art Institute of Chicago*

Dr. Townsend will discuss the architecture and sculpture of ritual centers as symbolic landscapes and the functions of these places as cosmological settings in ancient urban life. The lecture/slide presentation will concentrate on 15th century Aztec sites.

Thursday 4:00 pm 1988

Temple Buell Architecture Gallery
608 East Lorado Taft Drive, Urbana
University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

10
MAR

School of Art and Design
Anthropology Department
Art History Program
Center for Latin American and Caribbean Studies
Department of Architecture
George A. Miller Committee