

MILLERCOMM89

LESSONS OF THE SIXTIES FOR TODAY

David Dellinger
Peace Activist and Author
Guest-in-Residence in Unit One/Allen Hall

Dave Dellinger, nationally recognized organizer and leader in the civil-rights, anti-war, and American prison reform movements, will discuss the interconnections, tensions, and dynamics of these various movements in the 1960's. Mr. Dellinger, a member of the Chicago Seven, will address how the history of landmark events and protest activities has effected current domestic and foreign policies and contemporary movements for justice and peace.

20
OCT

Thursday 8:00pm 1988

114 David Kinley Hall
1407 West Gregory, Urbana
University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign

College of Communications
Department of Anthropology
Department of Economics
Department of History

Department of Political Science
Department of Sociology
Unit One
George A. Miller Committee

